JOURNAL OF AFRICAN CHRISTIAN BIOGRAPHY

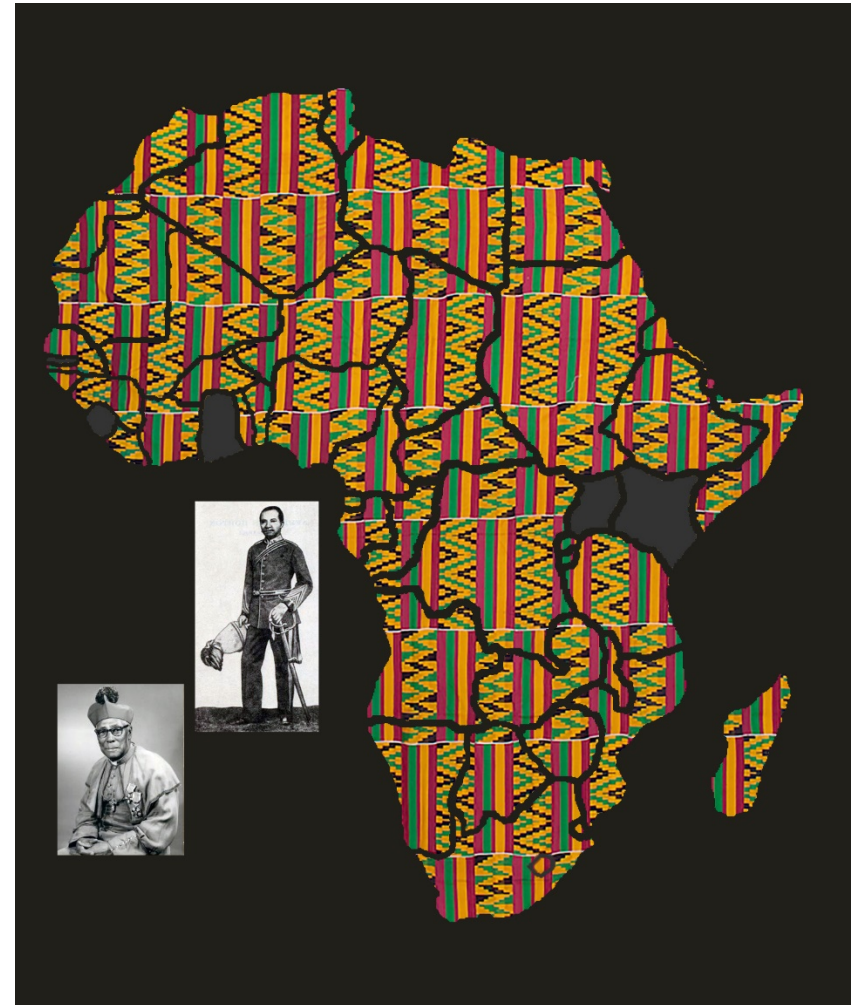

Vol. 3, No. 1 (Jan 2018)

Focus:

Horton, Nicol, Maxwell, Richards

(The Gambia)

Daniel Williams Alexander (East Africa)

A publication of the Dictionary of African Christian Biography

The poster features a vibrant, abstract background with warm tones of orange, yellow, and red, overlaid with a semi-transparent white banner at the top. Below the banner is a horizontal strip of colorful, stylized human figures in various poses. The text is arranged in sections separated by horizontal bars of the same warm color palette.

AFRICAN THEOLOGICAL ADVANCE

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Nagel Institute invites project proposals for the "African Theological Advance" initiative, which will make 16 grants between $35,000 and $50,000 USD for two-year research and curricular development projects.

These grants are for postgraduate African theological seminaries or university-based postgraduate theology programs. The awards will be for research and curricular development projects that address gospel and culture issues in Africa by drawing on interdisciplinary methods and insights to address one of four topical areas:

- African Spirituality and Values
- Science and Religion—particularly health and healing
- Religious Innovation and Competition
- Forgiveness, Peacemaking and Reconciliation

PROJECT CHAIR

Tite Tiénou

Professor and former Vice President, Trinity International University, USA
Founding Dean of Faculté de Théologie Evangélique de l'Alliance Chrétienne Côte d'Ivoire
