

Oral history project for the biography of _____

Date:

You are invited to participate in an oral history project conducted by _____ (name of researcher). The goal is to gather your memories of this Christian leader in order to write an account of their life, ministry, and role in the genesis and development of the church in Africa.

I plan to use the data collected (the recording of our interview) in several ways:

1) The interview will serve as a source for an account of the life of this person. This story will be submitted to the Dictionary of African Christian Biography (DACB) (<https://dacb.org>) and as an assignment in a course at (NAME OF BIBLE INSTITUTE OR UNIVERSITY), "COURSE TITLE" (DATE OF COURSE).

2) The interview will be kept in an archive accessible to any researcher (possibly on the Internet). Other researchers will be able to consult it and cite it in their research.

If you decide to participate, you are free to withdraw at any time without penalty. You do not have to answer questions that make you uncomfortable. There is no cost to participate. You will not be financially compensated for your participation.

You have the right to decide how, and if, this recording will be used. During the interview you will have the opportunity to communicate your detailed preferences regarding the use of your data. At all times, your personal data (e.g., address, telephone number) will remain confidential.

Do you have any questions? You can contact the following people for further information:

(researcher name) _____ (telephone) _____ (WhatsApp) _____ (E-mail)

(professor name) _____ (telephone) _____ (WhatsApp) _____ (E-mail)

Thank you for your participation in this project!
